[学生へのメッセージ] (Message to Students) Today's organizations need to attract, develop, and retain many kinds of highly specialized professionals—or talents—to successfully compete in the market. Even if you work as a freelance professional, you need to maintain a high-quality collaborative network with other freelancers to maximize your work value. In my course we will discuss the various ways to realize such goals. I expect the course participants to be very active in the class. We will conduct in-depth discussions based on the case materials and your personal experiences.
