

【氏名】 Yuichi Torikai
【現職】 Professor, Faculty of Business Administration, Toyo University
【学生へのメッセージ】 ※ゼミの指導方針や過去のテーマ等はここに入れてください。 Accounting is the language of business. It is the process of recording, classifying, and summarizing economic events. The companies process the accounting information and disclose the accounting information to the capital market. The accounting information functions to activate the economy through providing the transparent information to the participants in the capital market. In the class, we will start to study the basic accounting theory and the preparation of the accounting information, improve the ability for understanding and analyzing the accounting information provided by the companies, and build the ability for providing the solution in the complicated accounting issues.
【専門分野】 Auditing, Financial Accounting
【担当科目】 Auditing, Accounting
【主な経歴】 Yuichi Torikai is a professor of auditing at Toyo University. Before coming to Toyo University, he was a partner of Accounting Consultation Service at PricewaterhouseCoopers Aarata and worked on the accounting consulting for financial instruments as a PwC global Accounting Consultation Service partner. He also served as a practice fellow at the International Accounting Standards Board from 2002 to 2004 and as a senior research manager at Corporate Finance Research Institute, Japan from 1999 to 2001.
【主な研究業績/社会的活動】 He was a member of the technical committee of Emerging Practical Issues from 2010 to 2015 and Segment Reporting from 2007 to 2010 at Accounting Standards Boards of Japan. He was also an examiner of Certified Public Accountant Examination at the Certified Public Accountants and Auditing Oversight Board from 2006 to 2008.
【所属学会・団体】 Japan Accounting Association, Japan Auditing Association, American Accounting Association
【資格・表彰】 Japanese Certified Public Accountant (registered number 3010142)

